

INTRODUCTION TO FLY FISHING

Saturday, May 4th
9:00am - 2:30pm

Adirondack Interpretive Center

Licensed Fishing Guide Rick Kovacs will be your instructor for this one day workshop, focusing on the basics of fly casting, gear, and technique. No equipment or experience required. Just bring your lunch and willingness to learn something new or work on your skills.

To register email
shample@esf.edu

Workshop Schedule

9:00 - History of fly fishing and intro to the "quiet sport"
9:30 - Tools of the Trade - Keep it Simple
10:00 - Break
10:15 - It's all about the bugs
11:00 - Basics of casting
12:00 - Lunch (Bring your own)
12:30 - Matching the hatch
1:00 - Reading water, casting to the rise and prospecting.
1:30 - "Tight Lines"- hooking, playing, catching, and releasing
2:00 - Knot know how

COST
$40/PERSON

PREREGISTRATION
REQUIRED BY MAY 1ST